2nd Annual Kenneth's Ride

On June 3rd, the Sheriff's Office participated in the 2nd Annual Kenneth's Ride hosted by the Kenneth's Army Organization. The motorcycle ride, led by the Sheriff's Office, is in honor and memory of Kenneth White who was murdered in the Town of Knox. Kenneth's Army raises money for a scholarship offered to a Bern-Knox-Westerlo High School student who wishes to pursue a career in Social Services.

14th Annual Polish Festival

The Sheriff's Office participated in the 14th Annual Polish Festival which took place at The Blessed Virgin Mary of Czestochowa Church in the Town of Colonie. The festival was a three day event celebrating Polish-Americans and their culture. The Sheriff's Office provided Operation Safe Child, and informational tables staffed by Sheriff Explorers.

Parsons Community Day Event

On June 9th, Northern Rivers Family Services hosted a Community Day Event at Parsons located in the City of Albany. Parsons is one of the largest multi-service agencies in New York's Capital Region, dedicated to helping families and their children. The Sheriff's Office was glad to provide Operation Safe Child and informational tables to the event.

Knox Summer Campout Event

On June 3rd, the Town of Knox and the Knox Youth Council hosted its 1st Annual Knox Summer Campout Event for families at the Knox Town Park. The Sheriff's Office provided a K9 demonstration by Deputy Apple and K9 Jack, an informational table, Operation Safe Child, Sheriff's Explorers, and fireworks for the town.

Sheriff Brings Awareness to the Hill Towns

On June 8th, the Sheriff presented the Town of Berne with lawn signs that advise motorists to watch for bicyclists and pedestrians. The Sheriff's Office funded the creation of the signs and presented them at the Berne Town Board meeting. Members of the hill towns can contact the Berne Town Clerk to obtain a sign if they wish.

Battle of the Badges Softball Event

On June 11th, the Sheriff's Office participated in the Battle of the Badges softball event at the Joe Bruno Stadium. The event consisted of local Law Enforcement, Corrections Officers, and Fire Departments playing a friendly game of softball against one another. The Sheriff's team was made up of Law Enforcement members and Corrections Officers. The event was later postponed due to heavy rain and rescheduled for July 30th at 10:00am.

Rensselaerville Town Picnic

On June 12th, the Town of Rensselaerville hosted their annual town picnic at the Rensselaerville Town Hall. The Sheriff's Office provided Operation Safe Child, the Heroin Informational Bus, Patrol vehicles, and Sheriff's UTVs to the event.

Mohawk Ambulance Safety Day

On June 29th, the Sheriff's Office attended the annual Summer Safety Day Event hosted by Mohawk Ambulance Service at Swinburne Park in the City of Albany. Mohawk Ambulance encouraged children of all ages to hear from local agencies about how to stay safe over the summer months. Safety tips included bicycle safety, water safety, and everyday pedestrian safety.
